APPROVED:

THE COUNTY COMMISSION OF WOOD COUNTY

PRESIDENT PRO TEM, HOLMES R. SHAVER

COMMISSIONER, LEWIS E. GUINN

In regular session of the Wood County Commission, comprising Holmes R. Shaver, President Pro Tem of said Commission, and Lewis E. Guinn, Commissioner.
Thursday, October 10, 1985.

P R O C L A M A T I O N

- WHEREAS, death and destruction by fire account for numerous deaths, and considerable property damage,
- WHEREAS, the firefighters of Wood County, both paid and volunteer, are dedicated to fighting the tragedy of fire,
- WHEREAS, the dedication of these firefighters brings them into constant personal danger of injury or death,
- WHEREAS, some of Wood County Firefighters are among the hundreds of West Virginia Firefighters who have made the supreme sacrifice in the performance of their duty.

NOW, THEREFORE, WE THE WOOD COUNTY COMMISSION, in concert with ARCH A. MOORE, JR., Governor of West Virginia, do hereby proclaim, Sunday, October 13, 1985, as

FALLEN FIREFIGHTER'S MEMORIAL SUNDAY IN WOOD COUNTY

It is hereby ORDERED that this Proclamation be spread upon the official records of this Commission.

TO: All State, County and Municipal Officials

FROM: Arnett B. Corley, Jr.
State Fire Administrator ABC jr.

SUBJECT: Fallen Firefighters' Memorial Sunday

DATE: September 30, 1985

Governor Arch A. Moore, Jr., by proclamation has designated Sunday, October 13, 1985 as "Fallen Firefighters' Memorial Sunday" in West Virginia. This is in conjunction with the Annual Memorial Services to be held at the Fallen Firefighters Memorial on the campus of the National Fire Academy in Emmitsburg, Maryland.

On behalf of all West Virginia firefighters I am requesting your participation in this observance by lowering the flags to half-staff at your facilities in memory of those firefighters who have given their life that others might live.

Your cooperation in this effort is greatly appreciated.

A P R O C L A M A T I O N

By the Governor

WHEREAS, each year, throughout this country and the State of West Virginia, hostile fires result in the death and injury to many of our citizens and property losses in the billions of dollars; and,

WHEREAS, some 10,000 firefighters in our 435 fire departments throughout the State have pledged themselves unselfishly to protecting their fellow citizens from the hazards of fire; and,

WHEREAS, the services provided by our firefighters is considered to be the most hazardous endeavor in our country; and,

WHEREAS, our firefighters give so freely of themselves with great dedication and no thought of personal reward; and,

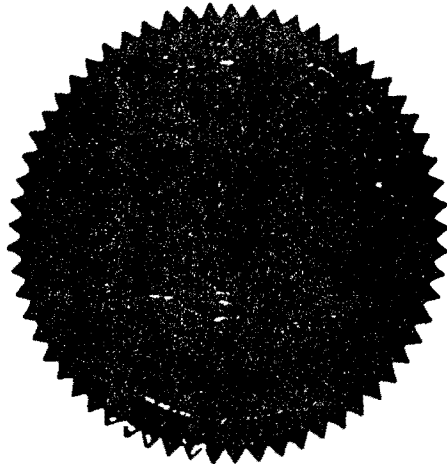

WHEREAS, during 1984, 117 of the Nation's firefighters, both career and volunteer, paid the supreme sacrifice in the line of duty.

NOW, THEREFORE, I, ARCH A. MOORE, JR., Governor of the State of West Virginia, in concert with our Sister States, the National Fire Academy, and the Nation's Fire Service, do hereby proclaim Sunday, October 13, 1985, as throughout the State of West Virginia and encourage the fire departments, local governments, churches, civic groups, and each citizen to observe this day and remember the sacrifice that 117 firefighters nationwide have given in service to their fellow man. And, on this day I also direct that all flags be lowered to half-staff in honor of those who have given their lives that others might live.

FALLEN FIREFIGHTER'S MEMORIAL SUNDAY

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State to be affixed.

DONE at the Capitol,
City of Charleston,
State of West Virginia,
this the twelfth day
of September, in the year of our Lord, One Thousand Nine Hundred
Eighty-five and in the
One Hundred Twenty-third year of the State.
