Press Notification Immediate Release March 25, 2020

Please be advised as of Wednesday, March 25, 2020, the Wood County Courthouse building, the Judge Donald F. Black Annex and the Wood County Day Report Center is restricted to the general public. All offices overseen by the West Virginia Supreme Court will remain open, as well as the Wood County Prosecuting Attorney's office. If possible, all matters should be handled via telephone, email or regular mail. If an emergency need would arise, please contact the respective office to make arrangements to handle the situation by a scheduled appointment or other means.

The County Commission encourages all individuals to process their tax payments via mail, online banking or an online credit card transaction.

With the May primary election only a few weeks from now, the County Commission and Clerk of the County Commission are working diligently with the Office of the Secretary of State to ensure our election process is conducted in a fashion that provides the utmost protection of an individual's right to vote.

Please continue to check the Wood County website at www.woodcountywv.com for updates.

Just remember this situation is very fluid and sometime things are changing within a few hours. Therefore, additional measures and safeguards may need to be considered.

In accordance with the "Stay-At-Home-Order" issued by the Office of the Governor, if at all possible, stay home and stay safe.
